FIELD SEMINAR SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

At the Pennsylvania Institute for Conservation Education, we are committed to making our programs accessible to as wide an audience as possible. Limited scholarship funds are available to low-income participants, minorities, teachers, students, senior citizens, environmental educators in non-formal settings, conservation professionals, or qualifying individuals. No refunds will be given for cancellations received 30 days or less before the start of a class. Cancellations received 31 or more days before the start of a class will receive a full refund of participant paid tuition minus the registration fee. For higher-priced classes, we suggest you consider travelers insurance. Contact your travel agent for details. In order to fairly evaluate applicants for a limited number of scholarships, we ask you to please respond to the questions below and on the reverse. For all scholarship applicants, please send a hard copy of this form by snail mail with an online registration form and required fee (Fees are $25 for tuition of $90 or less, $50 for $91-299 and $75 for $300 or more). You are welcome to e-mail your application and registration but we also request that you send a hard copy with your check or money order deposit by post.

What is your occupation?

Why do you particularly want to take the specific classes you indicated?

Why do you feel you should be selected for an Institute scholarship?

How did you learn about these classes?

If you are awarded a scholarship and register for a seminar, please remember that participation is integral to the program. The number of participants in each seminar is limited and we often have people waiting to get into a particular class. If you are unable to attend, please let us know ahead of time so we can give someone else an opportunity to attend.
